TAX CODE

All International students must have the Tax Code [it. Codice Fiscale]

Necessary to:

- Sign a rental agreement
- Buy a SIM card
- Register to SSN
- Apply to Residence permit

Non-EU students only

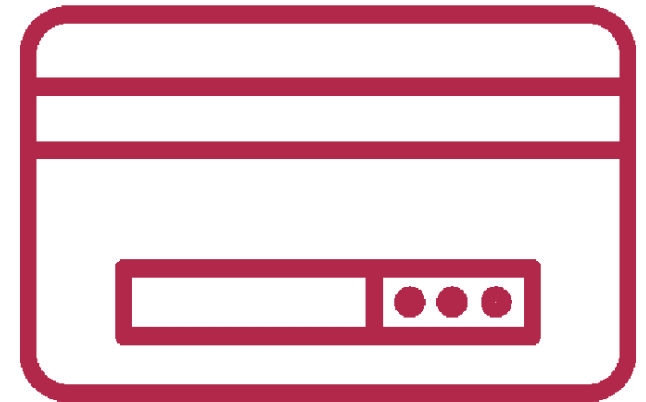

TAX CODE

Degree seeking students can obtain the Tax Code by sending a request:

- To the Italian Embassy during visa application or DoV request
- After enrolment, via email at dp.pavia.utpavia@agenziaentrate.it

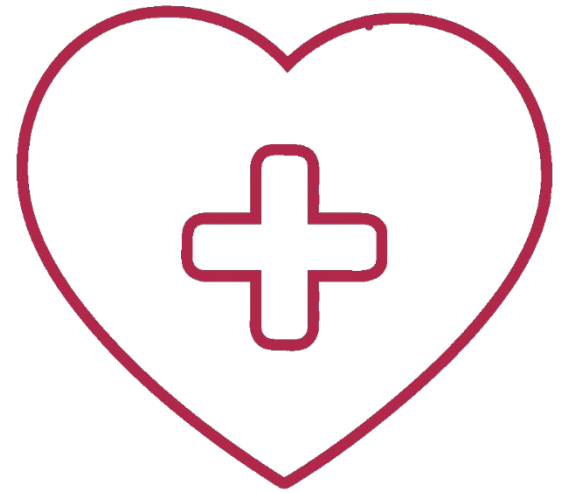

Exchange students upon their arrival will be directly provided with their Tax Code by the International Mobility Office via email.

HEALTH INSURANCE

All International students must cover the whole length of their studies in Italy with a Health Insurance.

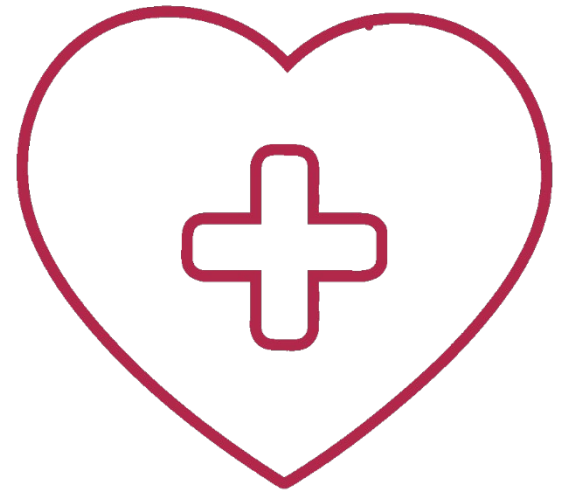

EU students: European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), gives you access to immediate necessary care under the same conditions as Italian citizens.

HEALTH INSURANCE

Non-EU students: being covered by a Health Insurance is compulsory in order to apply for the Residence Permit.

- Register with the Italian National Health Service (“Servizio Sanitario Nazionale-SSN”). Cost: €149,77
- Register with Poste Salute, the Post Office Health Insurance, at Poste Italiane
- Purchase a private Health Insurance

RESIDENCE PERMIT

All Non-EU students must request the Residence Permit within 8 days from arrival in Italy or at the end of their quarantine

International Student Helpdesk, located at the Police Station (Questura, Via Rismondo 68, Pavia).

Once the KIT has been filled in, you must hand it in to the Post Office (Piazza della Posta 1, Pavia) in order to send it to the Immigration Authorities.

Fees will cost 146,92 €.

RESIDENCE PERMIT

Required documents:

- Photocopy of your passport (without blank pages)
- Photocopy of a health insurance policy (public or private) or receipt of the payment of SSN registration
- Proof of enrolment at the University of Pavia
- Proof of accomodation
- Proof of economic support
- A 16€ revenue stamp [it. marca da bollo]

SIM CARD

Italian sim cards include a monthly plan that usually covers phone calls and gigabytes.

It is possible to buy a sim online or at the designated shops by providing passport and fiscal code.

ATENEO+ CARD

- CARD ATENEO+ is an prepaid reloadable credit card, issued without activation costs by Banca Popolare di Sondrio.

Once activated, it will be used automatically by the University to credit any refunds, scholarships and sums due for student collaborations.

- It can also be used in stores in contactless mode, for internet purchases and is designed to be able to access a wide range of services in the future.
