Guide
Overview
Located in Lombardy Region, only 30 kilometres south of Milan. The countless events, festivals, exhibitions, concerts, meeting places and University sports competitions combine to create an ideal place to live and study. Pavia is the capital of the fertile Province of Pavia, which is known for a variety of agricultural products, including wine, rice, cereals and dairy products. Its centre is a maze of narrow streets, ancient churches and elegant buildings, all bordered by the Ticino river. Pavia’s population is made up of approximately 70.000 inhabitants and 26.000 students.
How to reach Pavia

Pavia is well-connected to the world thanks to its proximity to Milan. You can arrive at Milan via airplane, train or bus then reach Pavia by train.

From Milan Malpensa (MXP).
From Milan Linate (LIN).
From Milan Bergamo (BGY).

From Milan railwaystation.
